CONSUMER & GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON TERMINATION OF CERTAIN PROCEEDINGS AS DORMANT

CG Docket No. 14-157

Comment Date: (30 days after date of publication in the Federal Register).
Reply Comment Date: (45 days after date of publication in the Federal Register).

By this Public Notice, the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau ("CGB") seeks comment on whether certain docketed Commission proceedings should be terminated as dormant (Attachment).

By Report and Order released on February 4, 2011,[1] the Commission revised portions of its Part 1 practice and procedural rules and its Part 0 organizational rules to increase the efficiency of Commission decision-making, modernize the agency's processes in the digital age and enhance the openness and transparency of Commission proceedings for practitioners and the public.[2] The revised rules delegate authority to the Chief, CGB to periodically review all open dockets and, in consultation with the responsible Bureaus or Offices, to identify those dockets that appear to be candidates for termination.[3] The Commission stated that these candidates may include dockets in which no further action is required or contemplated as well as those in which no pleadings or other documents have been filed for several years,[4] but it specified that proceedings in which petitions addressing the merits are pending should not be terminated, absent the parties' consent.[5] The termination of a dormant proceeding also includes dismissal as moot of any pending petition, motion, or other request for relief that is procedural in nature or otherwise does not address the merits of the proceeding.[6] Following these procedures, by Order released on November 1, 2011, CGB terminated, as dormant, 999 docketed proceedings.[7]

[3] *Id.*at1604, para. 23.

[4] Id. This Public Notice addresses open proceedings in which no action has been taken or pleading filed since December 31, 2008, or in which no further action is required or contemplated. The record in a terminated docket remains part of the Commission's official records, and the various pleadings, orders, and other documents in that docket will continue to be accessible to the public, post-termination.

[7] Termination of Certain Proceedings as Dormant, Order, 26 FCC Rcd 15312 (CGB 2011) ("First Dormant Proceedings Termination Order").

In the Procedure Order, the Commission directed that a public notice, identifying dockets under consideration for termination and affording interested parties an opportunity to comment, should be issued before terminating a proceeding. On February 15, 2012, CGB released the Dormant Proceedings Termination Public Notice,[8] listing open dockets under consideration for termination. On September 27, 2012, CGB released an Order in which it terminated as dormant the proceedings listed on the Attachment thereto.[9] Similarly, on June 30, 2014, CGB released the Third Dormant Proceedings Termination Public Notice, listing open dockets under consideration for termination.[10] On September 15, 2014, CGB released an Order in which it terminated, as dormant, 645 docketed proceedings.[11] Termination of the proceedings in the Second Dormant Proceedings Termination Order and Third Dormant Proceedings Termination Order furthered the Commission's organizational goals of increasing the efficiency of its decision-making, modernizing the agency's processes in the digital age, and enhancing the openness and transparency of Commission proceedings for practitioners and the public. Upon publication of the Third Dormant Proceedings Termination Order in the Federal Register, the proceedings will be terminated in the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS). The records in terminated proceedings remain part of the Commission's official records, and the various pleadings, orders, and other documents in these dockets continue to be accessible to the public, post-termination.

CGB, in coordination with the responsible Bureaus and Offices has once again identified dockets for possible termination.[12] By this fourth Dormant Proceedings Termination Public Notice, CGB hereby seeks comment from interested parties on the possible termination of the proceedings listed in the Attachment. To the extent that a particular proceeding includes a petition addressing the merits or other pending pleadings, a party's failure to file comments in response to this Public Notice will be construed as consent to termination of that proceeding. A party aggrieved by a docket termination may file a petition for reconsideration with CGB or an application for review with the full Commission.[13]

Ex Parte Rules. This proceeding shall be treated as a "permit-but-disclose" proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules.[15] Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must: (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made; and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter's written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules. In proceedings governed by section 1.49(f) of the rules or for which the Commission has made available a method of electronic filing, written ex parte presentations and memoranda summarizing oral ex parte presentations, and all attachments thereto, must be filed through the electronic comment filing system available for that proceeding, and must be filed in their native format (e.g., .doc, .xml, .ppt, searchable .pdf). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules.
